ANACOSTIA.

A BANNER BAPTISMAL DAY. 19:30 a m three candidates from Little Rock Colored Baptist Church of Washington were immersed in the Anacostia by their pastor, Rev. N. Dillon; at 10 o'clock thirty-four from the Third Colored Baptist Church of Washington by Pastor James Lee; at 11 o'clock six members of Enon Colored Baptist Church, Washington, by Bev. E. S. Thomas, and at 1:30 225 candidates from Mt. Zion Colored Baptist Church, Washington, under the supervision of Bev. William Howard, pastor. The baptised were mostly clad in white, with white kerchiefs about their heads, and were led into the water of real estate have been recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court; for this county; as about their heads, and were led into the water by twos at first and then by squads. After the recital of the service by the officiating clergyman the candidate was placed under the water, the recital being repeated as often as there were subjects to immerse. The candidates were conveyed to and from the shore by black-robed deacons and on rising from the water were saluted with the singing of hymns by the congregations of their respective churches. A concourse of 10,000 or 12,000 watched the ceremonies from the bridge, causeway, Baltimore and Ohio embankment, adjacent roofs and other points of vantage. The river was detted with cutters, shells, catboats, luggers, skiffs, lateen riggers and a variety of minor craft. The reasons why the southeast side of the Anacostia is frequently chosen for baptising are the beauty and safety of its beach and its contiguity to Washington. In addition to the local police under Sergeant McCathran, Officers Augusta, Stevens, Wright and Dyer of the fifth precinct proper were assigned to duty here, but there was not a case of drunkenness or disorder during the day.
